CHAPTER 7
BRC 18-55697LRC

OBJECTION TO ORDER AND NOTICE OF RESCHEDULED HEARING FOR APRIL 14, 2021 AT 10:30AM

Debtor, Cassandra Johnson-Landry received Order and Notice of Rescheduled Hearing dated March 24, 2021 on March 31, 2021, Debtor, FIRMLY objects. Within the Order it stated Debtor's presence was unknown. Debtor's presence was known during the calendar call. Based on previous Telephonic Hearing and In-Person Hearings, if an associated party to ANY bankruptcy case was not present, the assigned Judicial Clerk to the assigned Judge would call the calendar at minimum twice. If required parties are not present said Judicial Clerk would instruct which action to take place or a request to reschedule by a Trustee or Legal Counsel would follow.

If Debtor was experiencing technical difficulties with her phone, Debtor's ability to listen and identify those parties which were present would have been impossible. Debtor, would have also followed all court directives such as calling back into the provided number with required code if there was a disconnect. However, there was no disconnection nor technical issues experienced by the Debtor.

Debtor called in 5 to 7 minutes prior to the scheduled time. This can be proven very easily by the court and via A T and T, if there has been no redacting of or elimination of the recorded hearing, which appears to have taken place.

Furthermore, additional evidence of Debtor presence included:

1. Presiding Judge approving the Trustee's and Legal Counsel payment of approximately 23k.
2. Debtor overhearing the conversation of Herbert Broadfoot II, Esq, Legal Counsel to Chapter 7 Trustee, with an individual in the background due to his phone not muted resulting in Judicial Clerk instructing Herbert Broadfoot II, Esq. to mute his phone.
3. Debtor would not have known the presence of additional Legal Counsel initials W. P was presence to represent assigned cases.

Ironically, when Debtor takes a stance as Pro Se, there appears to be a level of retaliation which immediately follows such as a payment of sort to financially exhaust Debtor. According to the Court Debtor LACKS STANDING, therefore Debtor would assume the ruling regarding Application for Compensation would remain the same. (EXHIBIT A)
